

Graphics Note:

The images in this file are in the finished form and are not flat patterns of the parts so graphics may need to be adjusted to account for things like bends and other features that may exist on the body. We have added a hole dimension on the above image to ensure the file comes thru in 1:1 scale in your graphics system. 1 RC Racing, LLC is providing the files as a courtesy and is not responsible for any errors on graphics files produced from these images.
